SUMMARY

  I recently graduated with a focus on Full-Stack Web Development, equipped with a diverse skill set in front-end and back-end technologies. Throughout my studies, I've gained proficiency in JavaScript and its associated frameworks and libraries, including Angular, ReactJS, NextJS, and NodeJS. My practical experience in web development has provided me with a solid foundation in building dynamic and user-friendly applications.
  I'm seeking an Intern/Junior Developer position where I can be useful with my current knowledge and ambitions to continue my journey of growth and learning, honing my skills in either front-end or back-end development.

SOFT SKILLS

Time management
As a person who studies at a university, takes additional courses, works, lives with a girlfriend, and has ambitions to grow, I delved deeper into the topic because I saw this skill as required if you want to be a successful person nowadays.

Adaptability, Teamwork & Communication
When I am a part of something, I want to be as useful as I can, I want the mission to be completed successfully. So I'm carefully learning and delving into the problem, asking, and always ready to help if possible.

Problem-solving & Attention to details
I accept every project as my own and invest all my time and knowledge, my target is not only to satisfy the customer but to amaze it. So that is my mind and always want to find the best possible solutions, plan the best architectures, and suggest additional helpful things.

Work ethic
Along with my previous working experience, I've read some books about personal growth. From these books, I've learned many things about how an employee should behave, and how an employee can be a useful part of a team, not just an employee.
